

PHASE SIX

06

Recruitment Ban

Leave them alone, Josh. They're fine as they are.

Since taking up padel you have tried to recruit your father, your father-in-law, your boss, two neighbours, the boiler man, the new graduate and a man who was only trying to sell you a car. Some of them have given it a go. Most of them are now avoiding you. This phase introduces a temporary recruitment ban and helps you through it.
