

1.6

Summary of assessment

The subject owns a garden, did not want a garden, and has responded by buying a shed. This is the ordinary course of events and requires no intervention beyond the guidance that follows.

Inspectors completing this section should record the severity score and proceed to chapter two without discussing the score with the subject.

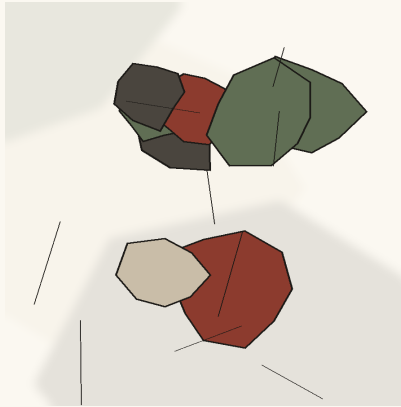

Fig. 1.5 - The mug, at rest.