

STAGE SIX

06

Holidays

Choosing a destination for reasons other than the courses.

A holiday is a period of rest taken by the whole family. The Programme has found that returning golfers treat holidays as an away fixture. This stage explains how to choose, book and survive a family holiday where golf is not the reason for going.