

2.5

Recording progress

Fig. 2.3 - The same view, twelve months apart.

Progress is recorded by photograph, from the kitchen window, in the same light, once a month. The subject will discover that nothing has changed and that this is, in its way, a result.